DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

In response to the amendment filed March 18, 2005 in which the applicant amends claims 1, 15, and 18, and claims 1-20 are pending in this application.

Drawings

1. The drawings filed on January 29 2004 are acceptable subject to correction of the informalities indicated on the attached "Notice of Draftsperson's Patent Drawing Review," PTO-948. In order to avoid abandonment of this application, correction is required in reply to the Office action. The correction will not be held in abeyance.

The examiner suggest that applicant submit a complete set of the drawings along with the suggest corrections noted in the "Notice of Draftsperson's Patent Drawing Review," PTO-948.

Reasons for Allowance

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art does not disclose nor teach according to claim 10, an agreement between players to end all military actions if one side has lost part of it's army, agreed upon beforehand, in the case where the side which lost more units is considered to be the losing side in combination with the rest of the claimed limitations. The closest prior art Benge disclose a simulated war game with a game board, game pieces, and a winner is declared when the capital is captured but does provide an agreement between players to end all military actions if one side has lost part of it's army, agreed upon beforehand, in the case where the side which lost more units is considered to be the losing side in combination with the rest of the claimed limitations.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
